

This photograph shows the Soviet Council at Samara drawing up plans for the relief of famine sufferers. The councillors appear to be comfortably fed. International.

Aristide Briand, Premier of France, arrived on the Lafayette with other distinguished Frenchmen to attend the Washington conference. On M. Briand's right is M. Rene Viviani, former Premier, and on his left M. Albert Sarraut, Minister for the Colonies. (c) Paul Thompson.

Above.—Here is a row of tiny German immigrants photographed on their arrival at New York on the steamer Hansa, the largest German liner to arrive since the war. Fotograms.

At right.—Several hundred German immigrants were among the arrivals on the Hansa. Here is a typical group. Fotograms.

Gen. Edmond Buat, chief of the French General Staff, and Admiral Ferdinand de Bon also arrived on the Lafayette and proceeded to Washington to attend the discussions on armament. International.

Chief Torpedo Man James Delaney of Malden, Mass., chosen to head the body bearers representing the navy at the burial of the Unknown Soldier. He has served eighteen years and wears the Navy Cross for conspicuous gallantry. (c) Harris & Ewing.

Above.—Miss Mabel Steagall, daughter of Representative and Mrs. Steagall of Alabama, is a member of the younger Congressional set in Washington. (c) Harris & Ewing.

At left.—Mrs. Lowell F. Hobart of Cincinnati, newly elected president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion. International

One of the newest of Uncle Sam's fighting ships, the superdreadnought California, at anchor in San Diego Bay. The photograph gives an idea of her huge bulk. Underwood & Underwood